Re: October Monthly Report (9/1/09 - 9/30/09)

Dear Ms. Lewis:

In your letter dated March 10, 2010, you noted that contributions to a candidate committee, "Friends of Chris Dodd", may have exceeded the contribution limits of $5,000 per election. Included in your letter was a listing of contributions made to "Friends of Chris Dodd" for the 2010 General election: $5,000 made on November 29, 2006 and a contribution of $3,000 made on September 21, 2009.

The contribution made on November 29, 2006 of $5,000 was deposited by the committee "Friends of Chris Dodd" on December 5, 2006. This contribution was then reported as transferred to the committee "Chris Dodd for President Inc" on December 5, 2006. Following Sen. Dodd's decision to no longer pursue the presidential race, the committee "Chris Dodd for President Inc" issued a refund of this contribution which was deposited by Deloitte Federal PAC on September 30, 2008 and was reported on the October monthly report (9/1/08 - 9/30/08). Upon receipt of this contribution refund, Deloitte Federal PAC determined that no net contribution had been made to "Friends of Chris Dodd" for the 2010 General election.

Subsequently, Deloitte Federal PAC issued a contribution of $3,000 to "Friends of Chris Dodd" on September 21, 2009 for the 2010 General election. This contribution appears to have never been deposited by the recipient and, as a result, on March 19, 2010 a stop payment on the check was issued and the contribution will be reported as a negative disbursement of $3,000 on the upcoming April monthly report (3/1/10 - 3/31/10).

Sincerely,

Courtney D. Schoenborn
